LOCATION

The subjects occupy an attractive corner location on the east side of Bon Accord Street, at its junction with Springbank Street. Within the vicinity of the building is Union Street to the north and Union Square to the east. The central location provides easy access to public transport links, road networks and other city centre amenities.

The area is predominately residential in nature with the surrounding buildings featuring flatted accommodation, however, there are also a number of Guest Houses in close proximity including the Crown Guesthouse, and Atticus Central Guest House.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a ground floor and basement premises set within a two-storey and attic building of traditional granite construction. Externally, the property benefits from a return frontage, featuring timber framed glazed windows. Internally the subjects have been partitioned at ground floor level to provide a front sales/services area with a separate room to the rear. The unit has been modernised and renovated to a good standard and is being re painted throughout. The premises provides accommodation suitable for a range of commercial uses spanning from retail and office, to other professional services. A W.C and tea prep area complete the ground floor. A fixed staircase at the rear of the property provides access to the basement, which provides further accommodation suitable for storage as well as uses which support the occupying business. On street car parking is available around the vicinity of the property.
